Licking County Foundation Announces New Board Officers

NEWARK, Ohio (January 14, 2011) – The Licking County Foundation’s Governing Committee has elected new officers for 2011: Michael Cantlin has been named Chairman; David Trautman has been named Vice Chairman; and Jeffrey Cox has been named Secretary/Treasurer. Sarah Wallace and William S. Moore have been appointed to serve a additional four-year terms. Also continuing to serve on the Licking County Foundation board in 2011 are Ann Fryman, Jerry McClain, William McConnell, Stuart Parsons, and Judith Pierce. Gilbert Reese and Frank Murphy serve as Chairmen Emeritus. “Licking County Foundation is honored to work with such a dedicated group of leaders who volunteer their time, share their expertise and work diligently to improve the quality of life for all in our community,” stated the Foundation’s Director, Connie Hawk.

About Licking County Foundation

Established in 1956, Licking County Foundation is dedicated to improving the quality of life in our area by helping caring people meet their philanthropic goals. LCF is a nonprofit charitable organization composed of 215 funds given by generous individuals, businesses and organizations. In 2010, these funds had a combined market value of $50 million; and $1.4 million in grants and scholarships were awarded to benefit many worthy local projects, programs, organizations and students. These grants enhanced almost every aspect of life in Licking County—including education, arts and culture, youth and families, health and human services, parks and recreation, and more. Effective and efficient, LCF spends less than 1% on operational expenses. To find out more, please call 740.349.3863 or visit www.thelcfoundation.org.
